

DO EXPLORE DO RED CENTRE WAY

DO THE GHAN

Experience one of the world's great train journeys. With scheduled services running both directions between Adelaide-Alice Springs, Adelaide-Darwin and Alice Springs-Darwin, it is by far the most romantic way to travel to the Northern Territory.

DO RAINBOW VALLEY

Located just 97 kms south of Alice, explore the wonders of this ancient landscape by relaxing in a guided tour, or create your own adventure by 4WD. Be sure to check out the sandstone bluffs & cliffs at dawn or dusk when the rainbow-like rock bands are at their finest!

DO ALICE

Discover the spiritual heart of Australia, with rivers and stunning ranges millions of years old and an ancient Aboriginal culture rich in art and stories. Alice Springs is your basecamp to Adventure and easier to get here than you think!

DO THE CANYON

The majestic Kings Canyon features 100m high sandstone walls, palm-filled crevices and amazing views that stretch across the desert. Why not stay longer and explore the walking trails, 4WD tracks, camel tours, and relax overnight in resort-style luxury or camp under the stars.

DO WEST MACS

Get amongst the West MacDonnell ranges that stretch 161km west of Alice. Home to iconic waterholes (such as Redbank Gorge & Ellery Creek), the Ochre Pits, Gosse Bluff, Hermannsburg, and Finke River – the West Mac's are a must on your Alice Itinerary.

DO ULURU

Discover the spiritual heart of the Aussie Outback. Blessed with natural beauty, this desert region is home to the famous Uluru-Kata Tjuta & Watarrka National Parks. Enhance your iconic landscape experience with world-class dining packages such as Sounds of Silence and Tali Wiru.

DO THE RED CENTRE

6 DAY SUGGESTED ITINERARY

The 660km Red Centre Way loop from Alice Springs makes its way to the West MacDonnell Ranges, Watarrka/Kings Canyon, and Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park. The Red Centre Way journey is recommended to be done over a minimum 6 days, here is a suggested way you could enjoy the journey. For more information visit travelnt.com.

DAY 1 - 130km

ALICE SPRINGS TO GLEN HELEN

Start the Red Centre Way by driving west through the West MacDonnell National Park, a spectacular stretch of natural formations including chasms and gorges, waterholes, and ochre pits. Explore Simpsons Gap, Standly Chasm, Ellery Creek, Ormiston Gorge and Glen Helen just to name a few. Splash, hike or just be in awe – it is truly a spectacular place!

DAY 2 - 260km

GLEN HELEN TO KINGS CANYON

From Glen Helen head 20km west to start the day with a swim at Redbank Gorge pools. You can grab a tyre tube from Glen Helen resort and splash your way through the gorge. Along the way you will come across the oldest known crater called, Cosse Bluff. Hike to the top where you can get spectacular views of the rides made from the meteorite. From here head to Kings Canyon Resort– where you can stay in luxury at a Deluxe spa room.

DAY 3 - 300km

EXPLORE KINGS CANYON

Kings Canyon is only minutes from the resort and offers hiking suitable for all. The rim walk is a 3 hour stroll featuring 100m-high sandstone walls, palm-filled crevices and views that stretch across the desert. For the more adventurous ones, you can hike overnight and sleep under the stars.

KINGS CANYON

ULURU ON CAMELBACK

RED CENTRE WAY

SALT PLAINS, MT CONNOR

DAY 4 - 300km

KINGS CANYON TO ULURU

Leave the canyon and follow the Luritja and Lasseter highways to Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park. Along the way you will pass Mt Conner which is often mistaken for Uluru. Do the unexpected and view the salt plains at the Mt Conner look out. Once you arrive at Uluru, settle in at Ayers Rock Resort, where there are accommodation and dining options available to suit all budgets and tastes.

DAY 5 - 345km

ULURU TO KATA TJUTA

Do Uluru and Kata Tjuta in a day or in many. See the icons at sunrise, sunset, on a camel or walking around the base. Listen to the local Anagnu people as they tell their stories of dreamtime. Walk the valley of the winds at Kata Tjuta and ensure you do the many walks close to the rock. You can touch, smell and explore this icon of Australia's Outback.

DAY 6 - 445km

ULURU TO ALICE

Start your return trip to Alice Springs – head back along the Lasseter Highway, past Curtin Springs Station and roadhouse to take in the view of Mt Conner through to Eldundra. Turn north onto the Stuart Highway towards Alice.

If you have the time why not stop in and explore the sandstone bluffs and cliffs of Rainbow Valley, which are particularly stunning in the early morning and late afternoon light when the rainbow-like rock bands are highlighted. From here Alice Springs is only 100km away.
