WHY SELF DRIVE?

A self-drive holiday is about freedom on wheels. Plan your own itinerary, go where you want, do what you like and at your own pace - spend as much time as you want at each place and explore places that are off the beaten track.

It is not about covering as much distance or seeing as many places as possible. It is about how much you enjoy. Forget about scheduled departures and early wake-up calls. When you are in the driver's seat, you take control of your adventure. With a car, there are no more worries about figuring out public transport, which can be daunting in a foreign land, especially when you are travelling with a lot of luggage or young children. You can choose to pick up your car at the airport and start your adventure.

A happy customer!

I approached Hertz car rental because it's a known and established brand. I was traveling with a family which included my parents. Hertz car rental helped me by finding the perfect car suitable for my needs. I used Hertz car to drive through Scotland highlands, across Scotland including cities of Edinburgh and Glasgow. The result was perfect! One thing I liked about Hertz car rental was the seamless and smooth booking-driving-handover process. No wastage of time, courteous staff, clear information and immaculate vehicle condition. I got a clean and worry-free car. It drove like a dream! I would recommend Hertz car rental to people who need a self-drive.

MY OCTOBER TRIP TO SYDNEY & MELBOURNE

by Sadie-Jane Nunis

Sydney

I arrived early in Sydney. The Hertz airport counter staff were so helpful and explained about their Fuel Purchase clearly so that I knew what the Option rates available and the like were.

After settling the paperwork, I picked up my Audi Q5 and was taught how to use the navigation system by the friendly staff at the pickup point. Signage at the airport was clear too making it so very easy to find the Hertz cars.

The return was easy peasy too. I dropped off the car, cleared the checks, dealt with the paperwork, and I was home free.

I enjoyed my sense of freedom. I managed to drive around Sydney and even Wollongong quite easily as I tapped on the Audi Q5 navigation system.

There are places I can explore without having to worry about taxi fares burning a hole in my pocket.

I love the freedom and flexibility that comes with a car rental service like Hertz!

Melbourne

I decided to try something different and took the train from Sydney. Upon arriving at the station, I took a cab to downtown Hertz.

After my stay, I had to return the car at the airport which was a piece of cake. I parked, they gave me a receipt, and a little while later, I received the E-receipt via E-mail.

This part of the trip was more for leisure compared to Sydney which was mostly work. I was happy to have wheels to drive all over Melbourne, including returning to where I lived and where I hung out when I first arrived as a student about 10 years ago. Hertz helped me to reminisce good times. I enjoyed driving around St Kilda and heading to Crownie too. I could also venture into Yarra Valley for a beautiful brunch with a view as well as meet my old university friends at Lygon for a meal later. Driving in Melbourne was relatively easy, just remember to watch out for the left hook turns.

A3 & Q5

Despite its size, the Audi Q5's consumption is surprisingly economical.

The interior of the car is top-class as expected of the luxury brand, and there is ample trunk space as well so I had no issue with my luggage. It is so easy to handle despite being a 3.0 litre SUV and I had no issues even when it came to parking the car in tight spots.

As for the A3 in Melbourne, this little fella can fly!

Compared to other compacts that I have driven before, this felt like it should set the benchmark for other smaller segment cars. It is both small and nimble which means parking around Melbourne is not a chore.

Audi has always been one of my favourite car brands, and there is no doubt, Audi exceeded my expectations. The compact A3 is perfect for a couple or a couple with small kids.

If your kids are bigger, I would definitely recommend the Q5 as it would be a more comfortable ride.

Prestige Collection

THE GREAT SWISS ROAD TRIP

The freedom of driving around in Switzerland, when travelling cross-country, especially on a holiday is an advantage that cannot be compared to public transportation.

From quaint alpine villages, scenic lakes, mountain peaks with panoramic views to beautiful cities, chateaux and castles, you can experience them all in any self-drive trip in the country.

Grand Tour of Switzerland is being introduced in April 2015 and is a nationwide tourist circuit spanning about 2,000 km including access routes. The trip includes numerous sightseeing opportunities and gives access to iconic beauty spots for excursions along a route that leads through the most beautiful parts of Switzerland. It covers cities, popular destinations and attractions like Zürich, Geneva, Davos, St Moritz, Ticino, Lugano, Jungfrau, Lucerne, Zermatt, and is an epic self-drive trip. Travellers on the Grand Tour circuit will have numerous sightseeing opportunities and access to iconic spots for excursions along a route that covers five Alpine passes, 22 lakes and 13 UNESCO highlights.

Zürich

Located at the North Western tip of Lake Zürich, Zürich - the starting point of this drive, is the largest city in Switzerland. The cobbled alleyways of the old town are great to wander around and the Quays along the banks of the Lake are enhanced by magnificently kept gardens. One can stroll along the Bahnhofstrasse, to indulge in the plethora of fashionable shops and restaurants. Zürich and the surrounding region are home to the biggest number of museums and exhibitions in Switzerland - the city offers a wealth of history, architecture, and culture, and is an absolutely charming, interesting and beautiful place to visit.

Zürich to Bad Ragaz

Set against a gorgeous backdrop of mountains and lakes, the drive from Zürich to Bad Ragaz along the Highway A3, is beautiful. Switzerland offers the most scenic views of the contours of attractive mountain ranges of the Alps. Bad Ragaz, attractively situated in the Rhine Valley at the mouth of the Tamina Gorge, is the home of a famous natural spring and is known as the ultimate spa resort in Switzerland. Moving around Bad Ragaz, on the left bank of the Tamina, stands the parish church of St. Pancras with 18th Century ceiling paintings. A short distance away to the North West of Bad Ragaz, is the little town of Sargans, where the 19th Century Town Hall (Gallatihaus) built in Classical style is worth seeing. Some of the other surrounding attractions include, Bad Pfäfers—in this baroque building, the history of the spa is outlined from 1630 to the present.

Bad Ragaz to Lugano (via Bellinzona)

En route to Lugano from Bad Ragaz, drive into Switzerland's Italian speaking canton - Ticino. The first stop is at the town of Bellinzona, which is famous for its three castles, Castlegrande, Montebello and Sasso Corbaro. A walk around this beautiful old town takes one back in time. The drive from here continues through the mountains. Flanked by mountains on either side, Lugano has a strong Italian flavor, both in their cuisine and architecture.

Lugano to Grindelwald to Interlaken (via Jungfrau)

Next morning enjoy an excursion to Swiss Miniature, before proceeding towards Grindelwald. At Grindelwald, depending on the season, you can choose to engage in winter sports or go hiking and swimming. Start your day with a trip to Jungfrau, which is one of the main summits of the Bernese Alps and is one of the main attractions for hiking. If you want to enjoy the rail network of Switzerland, you can leave your car at the hotel and use the modern cogwheel up to Klein Scheidegg. From there the Jungfrau Railway climbs to the Eiger Glacier Station arriving at Jungfrau. Alternatively, a 15 minute drive will take you from Grindelwald to Lauterbrunnen (which offers a parking space) and from there you can take the train to Jungfrau. After having your fill of mind blowing vistas, you can drive down to Interlaken. Located at 570m above sea level, Interlaken is one of the oldest tourist resorts in Switzerland and one of the most popular. It offers winter sports lovers access to some of the most spectacular skiing in the Alps, in an idyllic lakeside setting between the lakes Thun and Brienz. Stay at Interlaken and you could enjoy a variety of water-based activities throughout the year.

Interlaken to Montreux to Bern (via Lausanne & Geneva)

Drive on to Montreux, possibly the most beautiful town on the banks of Lake Geneva. While there, enjoy a visit to the Chateau Chillon, a thousand-year-old castle, and the medieval town of Gruyeres, famous for its cheese. Stay overnight at Montreux. From Montreux you can chose to embark on a full day excursion to Glacier 3,000. Next destination on the route is Lausanne, surrounded by vineyards with Lake Geneva at its feet it is one of Switzerland's most beautiful cities. Drive around the lake to Geneva and see famous landmarks - Jet d'Eau whose Accommodation white plum marks the city from far. The lake itself is a memorable sight.

Bern to Basel to Zürich

Leave Geneva for yet another charming city of Switzerland and its capital, Bern. The city has plenty of interesting sights and things to do. Leave Bern in the morning and drive North to Solothurn. At the foot of the Jura mountains, Solothurn offers a rewarding three hours of exploration, as you visit the Old Town on the left bank. Continue to drive north into Basel and make a visit to Basel's two main attractions that include the Zoologischer Garden (Zoo) and Foundation Beyeler (Art museum). Stay overnight at Basel. Travel back to Zürich and relax before celebrating the end of a great drive by exploring the nightlife at the Old Town on the left bank of the River Limmat, with many bars and cafes tucked away on the side streets.

SOUTH GERMANY ROAD TRIP

Driving in Germany can be a great experience as the roads are well maintained and there are many scenic routes. Driving is also convenient with easy-to-understand signs, easy-to-use GPS and with some of the most courteous and disciplined traffic in the world.

Germany's landscape is like from the fairy tales: castles, deep dark forests and mythical rivers. It is extraordinarily diverse, with cities, small towns, a wealth of art and culture, and pleasures of fine wine and beer. A fine way to discover Southern Germany is to do a self-drive from Munich, the capital of Bavaria, to Frankfurt, in Hessen. Set aside nine days for an invigorating drive past splendid scenery, dazzling monuments, charming countryside and stay in cosy guest houses, hotels or simply at family-run gasthofs and indulge in local cuisine & drink.

Munich

Munich has one of the best views of the Alps in clear weather and is home to Europe's finest airport. Visit the Old Town of Munich, best explored on foot, with stops to Frauenkirche (Cathedral Church of Our Lady), Alte Pinakothek (Art Museum housing famous collections of Old Master Paintings) and the Residenz (former royal palace) in the central part of Munich. Marienplatz (Our Lady's Square) is dominated by the New City Hall (Neues Rathaus) on the north side. The Glockenspiel in the tower of the new city hall draws millions of tourists a year. The east side, dominated by the Old City Hall (Altes Rathaus) has a newly reconstructed Gothic Council Hall and tower. The pedestrian zone between Karlsplatz and Marienplatz is a densely crowded area filled with international tourists and locals who frequent countless shops and restaurants in the area. A large public garden, English Garden, dominates the city centre and stretches to the northeastern city limits. Drawing 1.5 million visitors a year, visit the world's largest museum of science & technology, a Deutsches Museum. Your sightseeing is completed with a visit to the BMW Welt (World) - known for its automobile museum. If local beers, cuisine and tradition are your preferences, go to the Augustiner Biergarten (Augustine Beer Garden), where on a hot summer evening, visitors fill the open air garden.

Munich to Feussen

The scenic drive from Munich to Fuessen takes less than two hours. Visit Linderhof Castle, the smallest of the three palaces built by King Ludwig II. Strikingly beautiful, the castle boasts of the hall of mirrors, tapestry chambers, bed chamber and a spectacular garden done in a historical garden design. Next, spend half a day to visit one of Germany's most famous landmarks - Neuschwanstein Castle. With over 50 million visitors since it was opened to the public, it was constructed on the top of a rugged hill above the village of Hohenschwangau in the nineteenth century and is renowned for its magnificent visual beauty as well as its interior. Lastly, visit Hohenschwangau Castle - the childhood residence of King Ludwig II, completing the trilogy of palaces used by Ludwig II.

Feussen to Meersburg (Lake Constance)

Continuing towards the west, the drive from Fuessen to Meersburg goes past Lindau and takes less than two hours. While hills and mountains dominate southern Bavaria, the Lake of Constance (the third largest lake in Europe) offers breathtaking scenery and is filled with picnickers, as well as water sport lovers. The quiet town of Meersburg is home to two castles, the Old Castle and the New Castle. Drive past vineyards overlooking the Lake of Constance, visit the open air archaeological museum built on stilts in Unteruhldingen or stop by to visit the baroque pilgrim church at Birnau.

Meersburg to Europa Park

Voted the finest amusement park in the world in 2014, Europa Park is best visited by car. Depart Meersburg for Donaueschingen where you can stop to have a look at the source of the River Danube. Located in the Black Forest at the confluence of rivers Brigach and Breg, the Danube pass through four capital cities before emptying into the Black Sea via the Danube Delta in Romania and Ukraine. Travel west towards Freiburg, while enjoy the surreal landscape of the Black Forest. Take a break at Lake Titisee in the Black Forest. Indulge in a boat ride, taste an original Black Forest Cake, shop for handmade Cuckoo Clocks before proceeding to Rust where Europa Park is located. Over 100 attractions and international shows offer fun and entertainment for the whole family on an area of 95 hectares.

Europa Park to Baden Baden

An enchanting two hour drive brings you to the picturesque and well maintained spa town, Baden Baden located at the northern foothills of the Black Forest and in close proximity to the French border. Known for wellness spas, the thermal waters containing salt and rich minerals flowing from deep springs have therapeutic value and a soothing effect on the body. Which better place to experience the same than at the Caracella Spa (outdoor pool) and Friedrichshbad (indoor pool- full Monty compulsory). Evenings can be spent at fine dining restaurants at Lichtenter Allee, followed by a visit to Germany's only Casino - the Baden Baden Casino.

Baden Baden

Subject to clear weather, take a hot air balloon ride over outstanding scenery. Go for a scenic drive to Rebland - Baden Baden's wine growing district. Evenings are best spent taking the funicular ride to Mount Mercure. Enjoy para-gliding from the Mountain Top.

Baden Baden to Frankfurt via Stuttgart

It's a circuitous route, but well worth the effort for car lovers. The drive from Baden Baden to Stuttgart takes little more than an hour. The capital city of Baden Wurttemberg, Stuttgart is renowned for its car museums - Mercedes and Porsche. Europe's most famous zoological garden - Wilhelma, Castle Square (Schlossplatz), and its pedestrian zone with shopping outlets & international cuisine are also well worth visiting. Depart for Frankfurt in the evening and arrive after two hours.

DRIVING TIPS & INFORMATION

- › Autobahns are three-lane roads in one direction with the fastest cars on the first lane.
- › Germany has no speed limit on many routes.
- › Emergency telephones are available on motorways, larger roads and in the mountains.
- › It is by law that your car should carry a reflective safety vest at all times.

UNITED KINGDOM

SCENIC ENGLAND

Embrace the scenic driving experience of England.

A drive in Britain can be a memorable experience as you can drive through the villages, around estates, past farms and terraces, take the main highways and roads in Scotland, Wales and the wondrous climes of the Lake District.

This is a circular route from the city of Exeter (about 3 hours drive from London), covering the English counties of Devon and Cornwall. It is a journey that presents the contrasts of England's Atlantic rugged windswept coast (driving the North Atlantic Highway A39) to the calmer Channel coast showcasing Cornwall's beautiful gardens and the vast barren moors of Devon.

Exeter - Woolacombe - Ilfracombe

From Exeter, drive North-West towards the North Devon coastal town of Woolacombe (driving time 1 hour 45 minutes). The town is famous for the Woolacombe bay renowned as a surfer's paradise. The view on to the bay as the car descends in towards the town is especially beautiful.

From Woolacombe, drive for 15 minutes to Ilfracombe. It is a pleasant seaside town with a promenade lined with shops and restaurants, gardens and great views from the seaside Capstone Hill. It is laced with history as represented in its grand Victorian buildings and the old working harbour.

Ilfracombe - Exmoor - Barnstaple - Bude

From Ilfracombe, veer towards the East to Exmoor before continuing the South-Westerly journey along the Atlantic coast. Exmoor National Park contains a unique variety of landscape of moorland, woodland, valleys and farmland. The National Park's main town and service centre is Lynton (drive time from Ilfracombe: 35 min.) which has plenty of car parking. From here it's possible to take the exciting cliff railway to Lynmouth, which is one of the most popular destinations in the National Park.

From Exmoor, drive towards Barnstaple (drive time from Lynton: 40 min.), which is the oldest borough in the country and is the commercial and agricultural centre of North Devon. Stop to browse through the historic Pannier Market which offers fresh local produce, handmade arts and crafts and a range of antiques and collectables.

Carry on towards Bude (drive time from Barnstaple: 1 hour) which has been recorded as the sunniest place in the UK. It is a laidback area removed of any hustle bustle of larger seaside towns, and offers plenty of accommodation and restaurants. There is also a beautiful tidal swimming pool on the beach, perfect for enjoying a warm summer evening watching the sun going down. The Bude cluster consists of several villages such as Kilkhampton with its large church and castle, and the pretty hamlet of Launcells, both of which can be worth exploring. If you prefer cliffs, you could make a stop instead at the cliffclinging village of Clovelly, around two thirds of the way from Barnstaple to Bude. The unique point of the village is that the cars get parked outside, and donkeys and sledges are the only form of transport along its cobbled ways.

Bude - Boscastle - Tintangel - Padstow - Newquay

Just south of Bude lies the renowned and attractive National Trust village of Boscastle with its spectacular cliff-hung harbour entrance. Its Museum of Witchcraft is a very popular attraction and well worth a visit. Boscastle is the ideal place to have a leisurely morning stroll down to the harbour and quay area admiring the village's unique rugged atmosphere. Another 10 min. drive down the road is the village of Tintangel, famous for its castle ruins and dramatic sea views. The Tintangel Old Post Office is a 1300s building which contains Victorian artifacts which give an insight into the lives of the people in this area in the bygone eras.

For a late lunch, head towards Padstow (driving time from Tintangel: 45 min.), a typical Cornish fishing port home to the famous Seafood restaurant run by Rick Stein, situated at the beautiful harbour. From Padstow we carry on to Newquay (driving time: 35 min.), the major town in this area. The Blue Reef Aquarium containing a giant ocean display with an underwater tunnel and the Zoo are both quite impressive attractions here.

The Towan beach in the centre of Newquay is big and bustling, and so is the harbour where there are many boat excursions.

Newquay - The Lost Gardens of Heligan - Mavagissey - Fowey

From Newquay, cut away South-East from the rugged Atlantic coast towards the more sheltered coves of the channel coast. The first stop is the Lost Gardens of Heligan (driving time from Newquay: 45 min.) located just inland off the coastal villages of Pentewan and Mavagissey. Cornwall has some of the best gardens in the UK and the one at Heligan is one of the best. In 2008 The Lost Gardens of Heligan was granted National Collection Holder status by Plant Heritage for its historic and unique collection.

There is lots to explore and a picnic lunch is possible at Heligan. Another option for a late lunch can be the quiet coastal fishing village of Mavagissey, which is a quick 10 min. drive away, and has loads of seafood options and places serving traditional Cornish fare. From Mavagissey, we drive to another beautiful seaside town of Fowey (driving time 35 min.) up along the channel coast. It is located on the estuary of the river Fowey and has lovely shops and galleries dotting the centre of the town along with cafes serving Cornish cream teas and authentic fish and chips.

If you are up for more than just a little stroll in town, a highly recommended dramatic cliff-side coastal trail takes you all the way from Fowey to the tiny village of Polkerris by the sea, and to the charming village of Tywardreath. The trail is clearly marked, and can take up to three hours, especially if you take a few breaks to enjoy the view. The views of the calm sea from the cliffs are dramatic and wonderful.

Fowey - Eden Project - Dartmoor National Park - Exeter

From Fowey, we set off towards the Eden Project, about a 20 min drive away. Set in a huge meteor crater, the extremely impressive conservationist attraction is home to the world's largest rainforest in captivity with steamy jungles and waterfalls and beautiful garden displays in Mediterranean and other world styles.

Look out for the view over the entire reserve from the car as you descend into the crater towards the garden.

After lunch at the Eden Project, drive back towards Exeter (driving time 2.5 hours excluding any stoppage time). Remember to take the route that takes you through the Dartmoor National Park. You can enjoy the moor landscape as you drive through - swathes of heather covered moorland, large granite tors and forested river valleys are all here. A nice stopover would be at Princetown which is on the way and has a nice Visitor centre where one can know about The Dartmoor Story.

DRIVING TIPS & INFORMATION

- › Make sure your headlights are in working order, as you will need them on all day due to mist/fog, which are common in the UK.
- › Roundabouts are quite abundant, hence, stay in your lane and give way to the right traffic on the roundabout.
- › Do not proceed on amber or red traffic lights and there are no free left turns.
- › Be aware of U-Turners. Drivers are permitted to execute a u-turn or a 3-point turn on any UK road unless it's expressly forbidden.
- › Road enthusiasts can get loads of info about UK roads, history including chat forums at www.sabre-roads.org.uk.

HONG KONG

HUA HIN

ALL ROADS LEAD TO HUA HIN, THAILAND

In Thailand, it seems as though our cars have practically directed themselves back to Hua Hin.

Driving from Bangkok, will take about 3 hours by using the expressway.

Self-drive is definitely the best way to discover places at your own pace.

Driving in Hua Hin is pure leisure as the traffic is smooth and there are road signs almost everywhere. There are no road tolls or parking charges.

The Toyota Vios is a good economy car to drive. Good performance vehicle with low fuel consumption.

If you are travelling in a group four, you save more by renting a car with Hertz Thailand. You can plan your trip and go where ever you want when you self-drive.

JEJU

SELF-DRIVE JEJU ISLAND, SOUTH KOREA

One of the easiest and most relaxing ways to see Jeju Island is by renting a car. The top tourist destination for leisurely vacations in Korea, Jeju Island is perfect for a driving tour with an efficient road network and beautiful scenery. The best road for driving is probably Route 12, the beltway around the island. Route 12 provides access to coastal roads along the way, so you can enjoy a fantastic drive along the coast with a view of the emerald-colored sea and soaring gulls. Its stunning natural scenery of the island has made it a favorite filming location for numerous Korean TV mini-series, many of which are popular around the world. This Best Tour of Jeju includes some of these filming locations as well as other scenic destinations.

CAR RENTAL TIPS

- › Book your car in advance to secure the best postpaid rates. Payment can be made upon car pickup.

CELEBRATE YOUR WEDDING WITH HERTZ SINGAPORE

RETURN YOUR HIRED CAR ON SUNDAY AT NO EXTRA CHARGE

Weddings usually happen on weekend, or to be precise, they happen on Saturdays. After the wedding on Saturdays, Hertz offer the flexibility to return at the airport on Sunday.

RATES DO NOT DIFFER FROM WEEKDAYS TO WEEKENDS

Most car rental companies offer a different rental rate for weekdays and weekends. Price difference can go up to S$100 a day for luxurious cars such as BMW

UNLIMITED MILEAGE

Mileage capped can be a challenge to wedding couples especially when they need to travel to many places on their actual day and also to run errands, before and after the wedding.

For any inquiries and reservations, please refer to the contact details under "Domestic Rentals" in page 16
