Self-drive Tips

Travelling around the Northern Territory by car gives you freedom, flexibility, and with the right vehicle, access all areas. It's the best way to get off the beaten track and explore the Territory's remote wilderness, at your own pace. It's not all off-road ruggedness, though as 95% of the Northern Territory's attractions are accessible by sealed highways.

Make sure your vehicle is in good working order. Try to avoid driving at night, and be wary of road trains and crossing stock on highways. Distances in the Northern Territory are vast, so plan ahead for rest stops.
