

Binnenhof Palace, The Hague

Prinsengracht Canal, Amsterdam

NETHERLANDS

Holland, the place known for the “Venice of the North” and the most famous windmills in the world.

Suggested Itineraries

THE NETHERLANDS FLOWER ROUTE

Amsterdam $\xrightarrow[1h40min]{144km}$ Haarlem $\xrightarrow[1h15min]{92km}$
 Lisse (Keukenhof Gardens) $\xrightarrow[1h20min]{112km}$ Leiden

STUNNING ALPINE PASS FOR THE ADVENTUROUS

Amsterdam $\xrightarrow[1h25min]{80km}$ The Hague $\xrightarrow[1h45min]{127km}$
 Rotterdam $\xrightarrow[3h5min]{200km}$ Kinderdijk windmills

A DRIVE UP NORTH COUNTRY

Amsterdam $\xrightarrow[4h]{340km}$ Aalsmeer $\xrightarrow[45min]{55km}$
 Edam $\xrightarrow[3h30min]{293km}$ Enkhuizen $\xrightarrow[3h30min]{293km}$
 Monnickendam

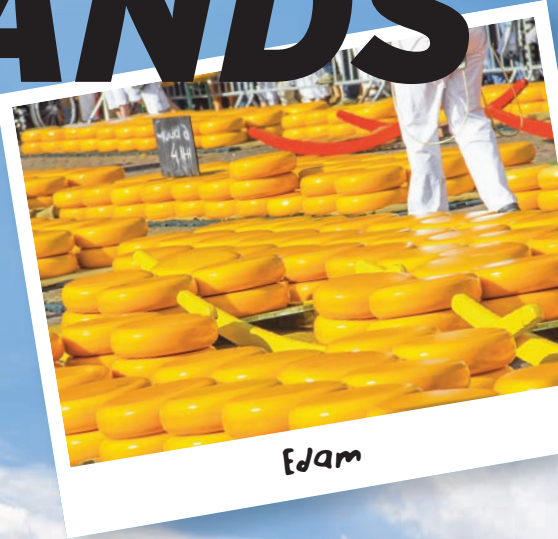

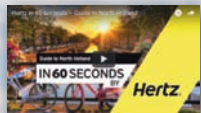

Self-drive Tips

Holland has only two toll roads, the tunnels “Westerscheldetunnel” and “Dordse Kil”, however, you do not have to pay motorway tolls when driving through the Netherlands.

In Amsterdam, trams are a common sight. They should have the right of way at all times. If you happen to see an inverted red triangle as you approach a roundabout, it means that the traffic on that roundabout should have the right of way.

Be extremely vigilant for cyclists. There are cycle lanes on most major roads.

Visit www.hertz.com/drivingvideos to watch our self-drive tips videos.

Edam

