One Way fees & Cross-border

One-way fees apply if you are picking up a car at one location and returning it to another, with some exceptions. Hertz calculate the mileage between the 2 points then charge a fee that varies depending on the distance and the car type you have. You should be advised at time of booking if a one-way fee applies and what it is.

USA

No one way fees apply for the following

Picking up and dropping off between any depots within Florida

Picking up and dropping off between any depots within California

Picking up in California and dropping in Las Vegas or Phoenix or vice versa (v/v)

Picking up in Miami and dropping in New Orleans or v/v

Picking up in Chicago and dropped at San Francisco Airport, Las Vegas Airport, Phoenix airport, Los Angeles Airport or San Diego airport or v/v

One-way fees apply for all other rentals where you collect from one location and return to a different location

Cross-border –US to Canada only

Only bookable through our Retail stores and Contact Centre:

Some car classes can be picked up in the USA and dropped in Canada. Only between the below Airport locations and for the fees stated:

Boston – Toronto or Montreal USD $350
Buffalo – Toronto USD$300
New York – Toronto or Montreal USD$300
Seattle – Vancouver – USD$300
Detroit – Toronto – USD$300

Canada

One-way fees apply to all rentals where you collect from one location and return to another.

General one-way info

One-way fees are payable on arrival

Taxes and fees are applicable and added locally

Distances are calculated using the shortest distance in Google maps regardless of the route you take

Some vehicles can't be driven one way at all

We hope you enjoy unforgettable driving experiences stopping wherever you want along the way. Visiting small towns, large cities and seeing stunning lakes, mountains and beaches
Happy travels from Virgin Atlantic!

Disclaimer: Information, pricing and terms are valid as of October 2026 and subject to change.